UNCLE SAM AND GREATER AMERICA

Persons from the latest news from that state, Georgia is a mighty good place for the Negroes to emigrate from.

Boys, you're all right now! The whole country has been turned over to the Spies, and all you have to do is to walk right into the orchard, shake the tree, and help your tree to the plum.

Whoop! Hurrah!

The long promised Civil Service order has been issued by the President, the bars are down, and you are unconfined! On Tuesday President McKinley did the thing to great surprise, and as a Washington correspondent puts it, inasmuch as General GROSVEKOR had not been in consultation with the President since Sunday, and Mr. HANNA spent much of his time at the White House between his arrival in Washington Monday noon and his departure Tuesday at noon, it is fair to assume that they have been instructed in serving the President's courage to the sticking point of attaching his signature to the order.

There will be natural disappointment because the President has succumbed at last to the demands of the place hunters, but as the order stands as published, it is a relief, especially to be noted for its brevity. It reads: "Amendment to Civil Service Rule 6 is hereby amended by adding thereto the following: 'Government printing office. One for each of job division.'"

"Approved: Executive Mansion." Thus, it will be observed, does the President destroy the fabric of the merit system. After reading two years in thoughtful consideration and investigation, after having referred his contemplated order backward and forward between the heads of Departments and the White House, that again, the President issues a order, again, taking from the protection of the Civil Service Rules not Department Clerks, Revenue Deputies, Private Secretaries, etc., to the number of thousands, but simply one job printer in the Government Printing Office.

PATRICK HENRY once defied his enemies to place their own interpretation upon his use of language avowing of treason. In view of the order, WILLIAM McKINLEY also can tell the Spies that "If this be treason, make the most of it."

He would be quite safe, for the most that can be made of the order is one job paying about a day.

CRUISER RALEIGH

She Arrives in Philadelphia and Participated in the Grant Monument Unveiling.

SALUTE OF 21 GUNS TO ADM. DEWEY.

A Large Fleet of Steamers Followed in the Vessel's Wake, Howling Their Whistles Constantly.

The President Arrived Thursday Morning—The Military Display Commanded by National Guards, Crew of the Raleigh, Marines and sailors and Militia.

PHILADELPHIA, April 27.—The cruiser Raleigh, which took part in the ceremonies of the unveiling of the Grant monument, reached her anchorage off Race street wharf Wednesday. Mayor Ashbridge, the council committee on the unveiling and a number of distinguished citizens met the ship below the city and escorted her to the anchorage. A large fleet of steamers followed in wake and blowing their whistles constantly to which noise-aided the welcome from factory bells and whistles on the both sides of the Delaware river. When the procession reached the League Island navy yard the Raleigh fired a salute of 21 guns to Adm. Casey, commander of the yard, which the navy yard responded. A brief stop was made during which the Raleigh's commander went ashore and paid his respects to Adm. Casey and Capt. Clarke, captain of the yard.

The president and party arrived Thursday morning. Following the unveiling the president will attend a luncheon at the Union League, and, later in the evening, will attend a public meeting at the academy of music. He will make no speeches.

The military display consisted of the national guard of Pennsylvania, crew of the Raleigh, marines and sailors from League Island, several New Jersey regiments and a number of private military organizations.

On Friday there will be a demonstration on the river, when President McKinley, in honor of the Raleigh and her crew, will pay a visit to Capt. Coghlan. Mrs. Grant arrived here shortly after 1 o'clock. She was accompanied by Miss Rosemary Sartoris, who is her granddaughter, and who will, with the statue and McKinley, be taken to the Broad street station of the Pennsylvania railroad by a ladies' reception committee, of which Mrs. Charles C. Harrison, wife of the president, is chairman.

After the informal greetings the entire party were driven to the Hotel Walton. Mrs. Grant, being somewhat fatigued by her journey, retired to her room soon after her arrival at the hotel.

Soon after Mayor Ashbridge and council committee boarded the Raleigh Wednesday while the gallant little vessel was on her way up the river, the mayor and committee went into Capt. Coghlan's cabin where the captain, the officers and crew were formally welcomed to Philadelphia by the mayor.

In responding Capt. Coghlan said: "Mr. Mayor and Members of the Committee: We appreciate the honor in which you greet us and thank you for it. I do not personally need to be told of the kindness of the people of this city for I lived here several years and know the people to be kind. The invitation to take part in the unveiling of the Grant statue is gratifying and as to the celebration of Dewey day we will regard that as a privilege for we feel that we are almost a part of Dewey. As to the invitation to dine Wednesday night with the committee we accept that, not because we want the dinner, but because we want to be with you."

Capt. Coghlan and all his officers came ashore shortly after 6 o'clock. The commander of the Raleigh was driven to the Stratford hotel where he greeted his wife and shortly afterward joined his officers at the Hotel Walton, where they were tendered a dinner by council's ladies' reception committee. The entire party later on attended a theater.

THE CASE OF CAPT. COGHLAN.

Incident May Be Considered as closed—The Captain is Reprimanded and Germany is satisfied.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The case of Capt. Coghlan may be considered as finally closed. The German ambassador, Dr. Von Holleben, called at the white house Wednesday afternoon and had a conference on the subject with the president of such a satisfactory nature that the matter was regarded as settled. The president explained the course the navy department had taken in administering a reprimand to Capt. Coghlan. It was also pointed out that the officer's explanation of the incident stated that his wife's nerves had been much exaggerated. On the part of the ambassador there was every disposition to deal as lightly with the matter as possible, and not permit it to become a source of friction.

During the day the navy department administered to Capt. Coghlan the reprimand which had been determined upon Tuesday, as stated in these dispatches. This was in the form of a letter from Secretary Long to the officer.

CALUMPNITY BURNS.

The American Troops Are Closing in Around the Stronghold of the Insurgents.

IT IS PROBABLY THEIR LAST DITCH.

For the First Time the Rebels Are Employing Artillery, but Their Aim is Bad.

They Use Shotguns, Which Burst Over the Heads of Two Americans Without Effect—Two Americans Were Killed and Seven Wounded.

MANILA, April 27.—It is assumed by the American general that the insurgents are either demoralized by Tuesday's severe losses or else the greater portion of the enemy have retired along the north bank of the Rio Grande river on the southern bank of which is the town of Calumpit.

Agulnido's army Wednesday was defending Calumpit energetically, which is said to indicate that the rebels are finally making that place their last ditch, or stand, which the Americans expected them to make at Malolos.

For the first time the Filipinos are employing artillery. They brought two guns into action in the trenches Wednesday before Calumpit, firing modern shrapnel, which burst over the heads of Gen. Wheaton's men without effect.

The fighting was resumed at 6 o'clock Wednesday morning. During the night the American engineers repaired the bagbag bridge, thus enabling our troops to cross the river.

Gen. Wheaton's brigade advanced in extended order, with the Kansas regiment to the west of the railroad, and the Montana regiment to the east of it, and took up a position covering one and one-half miles on the tion, but they swim back to their huts as soon as the American troops have passed.

The United States transport Zealandia, from San Francisco, March 28, having a board several companies of the 9th infantry, and a large quantity of supplies, arrived here Wednesday after an uneventful voyage. Her troops are now camped on the water front.

Wednesday, April 27.—The following telegram was received at the war department late Wednesday evening: "MANILA, April 26.—Adjutant General, Washington: Lawton at Noreaga, and Angol, and two columns united have driven enemy to north and west. Slight casualties, names not reported. Only means communication available."

"MacArthur has taken portion of Calumpit, south of river. Movement attended with difficulties on account of jungle, heat and strong intrenchments. His casualties yesterday three killed, 11 wounded."

"Developments thus far satisfactory." (Signed) "H.H."

NO MERCY IS ASKED.

Attorney John C. Welles Makes His Closing Pleas on Behalf of Mrs. George, Charged With Seditious Murder.

CANTON, O., April 27.—Attorney John C. Welles occupied Wednesday morning in his closing plea on behalf of Mrs. George. He said to the jury that if they found the accused guilty of murder in the first degree they should not recommend her to mercy, thus saving imprisonment for life for the death penalty. "For her sake and for our sake," he said, "do not ask mercy. We do not ask it, we do not want it." A review of the evidence was then taken up and reviewed on the hypothesis that there was nothing but circumstantial evidence and that this was clouded with doubt in important essentials. In commenting on a threat about going to the Althouse place to create trouble, Mr. Welles said it was fitting that the jury should meet his death there, on the ground that he was a dangerous man.

At Canton, O., Carl Rudolph Schuler, of New York, and Miss Carl Schuler, of Canton, whose engagement was announced at the white house in Washington, during the holidays, were married Wednesday night, Rev. John A. Hall officiating.

The treasury department has decided not to take an appeal from the decision of the board of general appraisers, looking that synthetic silk or artificial silk made from coal tar is free duty as goods under paragraph 559 of the tariff act of 1907.

An important conference of Roman Catholic prelates from Mexico, Canada and South America will be held in Rome on May 28 next. Ten archbishops and 35 bishops, who have been requested to attend the gathering, are now hastening to Rome.

At Warrenton, Ind., a strike continues with no prospect of weakness on either side. The miners have decided to concentrate their effort on the Hancock Hill and Sand run mines, which employ about 400 men. Twenty men have been taken to the place of the strikers and come out from that mine.

Wholesale Murders.

BERLIN, April 27.—A sensational trial will begin tomorrow in Berlin, where a man named Herman is charged with murdering his three wives and 12 children of his second marriage. He is also charged with a whole series of other murders. It is alleged that Herman, after murdering his wives, valued their bodies in the cellar of his house. The children all are young, and it is asserted they were poisoned with cyanide of potassium.

THE GREATEST CIRCUS.

Wallace Bros., Which Will Exhibit Here On May 5th.

The Washington, D.C. Post, one of the most authoritative newspapers in the United States, and a most unusual thing in devoting an editorial to the Wallace Circus, which came to Washington, D.C., and went away with a splendid reputation. In part the Post said:

"The Great Wallace Show represents all that is best of legitimate work in the circus business. It is an enterprise of men who aspire to elevate the tone and purify the atmosphere of the calling, and we believe the thousands who have attended the performance during the past two days will certify they have succeeded. Not only was the performance up to the highest professional and artistic standard, the menagerie large and varied, and the trained animals of the best, but there was not in connection with the Wallace Show a single one of those discreditable and degrading features which have done so much to give the circus a bad name and to discourage the true friends of that otherwise wholesome form of amusement. The managers of the Wallace Show keep all their promises, advertise nothing they do not expect to give, and carefully direct their performance of anything and everything calculated to offend the nicest taste. We are sure the verdict of Washington will be most favorable and that the show can return to us sure of finding genuine admirers and friends."

The big circus institution will exhibit in Mayville on Friday, May 5th.

Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism. KESSA, Jackson Co., Va. About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk or sit without assistance, her limbs being swollen to double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without any assistance from any member, and she has not had a similar attack since.
